 - (g) This section applies only to homestead property.
 - (h) No former owner shall be eligible under this ordinance if they had any mortgages, tax liens, judgments or other encumbrances against the property at the time of the tax deed taking unless

Kenosha County Board of Supervisors
County Administrative Building - Third Floor
1010 56th Street
Kenosha, WI 53140

Honorable Supervisors:

I am writing in regard to Jennifer Freiheit, whom I have known professionally since 2002 in governmental public health practice – including during her tenure at the City of Milwaukee Health Department – as well as through her doctoral program as a member of her doctoral committee.

I served for 26 years as Medical Director for the Milwaukee Health Department, retiring this past week. I have also been very active in the Wisconsin Public Health Association over that period, and have worked with many public health professionals across the state, including your former Division of Health Director, Cynthia Johnson, and your former Assistant Health Officer / Clinical Services Director, Gwen Perry-Brye. As such, I'm in a strong position to make this assessment.

I was very pleased to hear that Kenosha County was hiring Dr. Freiheit to be your new Division of Health Director. In my personal experience – and I will only speak to my own personal experience – Jen's skills and expertise are an excellent match for what I understand to be your Division's leadership needs.

My positive opinion about Jen's capabilities is not new. When I wrote a letter of reference for her in early 2018, I cited her deep understanding of administrative public health practice. The following is a quote directly from my 2018 letter of reference for her:

When Jen was the Program Coordinator leading a region under a large Centers of Disease Control and Prevention grant for emergency public health preparedness, she excelled at building trust with a wide range of private and public agencies. She worked effectively to organize an inclusive multi-disciplinary team, was a politically astute problem solver, and an effective leader and advisor. She coordinated the leadership staff of fourteen local health departments under a Unified Command Structure, which is no easy task, and which tapped into her natural teaching and leadership skills.

In short, given what I know about your Department, about public health leadership in general, and about Dr. Freiheit's skills and experience in particular, I can state plainly that, if I were in your position, I would not hesitate to hire her as Director of the Kenosha County Division of Health.

Sincerely,

Honorable Supervisors:

This letter serves to reiterate my previously expressed support for the appointment of Jennifer Freiheit as Director of the Kenosha County Division of Health.

During her time with the City of Milwaukee, Jennifer proved thorough, capable, and mission-focused during a time of challenging transition in the Health Department. She was able to prioritize problems and plan solutions, and effectively communicate with colleagues and elected officials.

Her departure from the City was amicable, and we wish the best for her in her work with Kenosha County.

I am more than happy to discuss, please don't hesitate to contact me with questions. I can be reached at 414-286-3528.

DESCRIPTION OF LOSS

My mother, Marjorie Smith, entered Brookside on September 6, 2019. She came with a Medline Wheel Chair. This was used by attendants to transport her to the food hall and within her room on in Wing Seven. She was in room 710.

On October 15, she was taken to emergency at Aurora Hospital around 7:00 PM. She was diagnosed with congestive heart failure and was told at that time that nothing more could be done to help her and that she could possibly pass away that night. I was asked via phone from friend Mary Dubovik who was with her whether to keep her there or bring her back to Brookside. We elected to have her brought back to Brookside, where she managed to live a few more days until passing on Friday, October 18.

On Saturday my wife and I were gathering up things from her room. As we were about to leave with everything we also looked into the bathroom to get her wheelchair. To our astonishment the wheel chair there was a Brookside wheelchair, equipped with oxygen tank on the back. When we asked the nurse in charge where it was she had no idea. We also checked with Jasmine, one of the nurses who attended my mother regularly, who knew exactly what her chair looked like. She checked all over and came back empty. She told the nurse in charge to put out a search for it. So, we left, headed back to Cincinnati where we live. When we checked with the chief day nurse on Tuesday, she knew nothing about the lost wheel chair matter and as far as she knew no notice had been circulated for people to be on the look out for it. So, she put something out. That turned up nothing. Following that, I talked to Assistant Director of Nursing, Rita McFarland. She put out another search and came up with nothing. And now we are to the point of filing this loss.

After thinking about this, I believe the loss occurred on the Tuesday night my mother was taken to emergency. Apparently, after coming back to Brookside, she needed a chair that was equipped to hold an oxygen tank, which hers wasn't. So, the change was likely made then. However, what was done with her own wheel chair and who did it, seems to be totally unknown. Yet, surely there are time sheets that show who was on duty at the time. Regardless whose fault, negligence was clearly shown in handling my mother's wheel chair to the point that no one knew where it was nor who might have put it anywhere but in her room where it belonged.

The list price for this wheel chair is: $350 but they sell online for about $159.

The further frustration for me on this is that I am currently renting a wheel chair at about $89 a month that began December 4 and will last up to 3 months because of having major ankle surgery on Dec 5. I would have used my mother's instead, had it been available.

So, I am seeking compensation for this loss of property due to negligence on the part of Brookside in the amount of $159.
