CITIZEN COMMENTS

Amy Regina, 4529 29th Ave., stated she is speaking on behalf of the Brookside Dietary Department and need the County Boards help. Last December Administrator Fran Petrick had a meeting with them and informed them Dietary was being contracted out to a company called Unidine but they would remain Kenosha County employees. Recently another meeting was held and they were told that eventually the Kenosha County jobs would become Unidine jobs. Unidine does not allow them to take breaks. Current county staff is being denied PTO because there isn't enough help since a lot of people are leaving and there are 10 vacant positions. Employees are quitting because they're not able to take lunch breaks, the work load is too much and of the treatment they receive. They have been told, if they don't like their job, they can go find another.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE CHAIRWOMAN

Chairwoman Breunig welcomed Youth In Governance members Auriana Maedke and Isabella Ricker to the meeting.

SUPERVISOR REPORTS

Supervisor Blough Thanked the Sheriff's Department for keeping the bike riders safe during the Dairyaire Bicycle ride to the Dairy Breakfast. She also thanked Jennie Tunkieicz and Matt Collins for planning a well-run event. The Pringle Nature Center Board met in April and everything is going quite well. The board members are working on various events including fund raisers. There have been many volunteers putting in a lot of hours there and the attendance at the center has been high.

Supervisor Retzlaff thanked Supervisor Gentz for delaying the levy objective for another month to collect more data. One thing that has concerned him is that the county has missed the sales tax revenue by over million dollars over each of the last two years; but he thinks the levy will look good this year.

Supervisor Hallmon stated he is on the NACo Telecommunication and Technology Steering Committee. The telecommunication industry is looking to deploy small cell antenna towers roughly 6 feet tall. There are numerous concerns about this. The current 4G system will become 5G for things like driverless cars to operate properly. He has magazines on the 5G subject if any supervisor would like to learn more about it.

Supervisor Bostrom thanked Supervisor Hallmon for bringing up the issue he spoke of. There is currently a bill floating around in Madison that will allow AT&T to be one of the first companies to employ this technology throughout the state. In addition to being able to put these antennas on light posts if another energy source is needed they would also be able to install up to an 8-foot-wide electrical box in the public right-a way which could be between the sidewalk and the street. He encourages everyone to stay on top of this topic.

Supervisor Gentz asked that the issue Supervisor Hallmon and Bostrom spoke of be put on the Legislative Agenda.
