

The Connie Reyes Award for Excellence in Child Abuse and Neglect Prevention

2017 Nomination Form

Kenosha County is seeking award nominations for an individual who works diligently and compassionately to prevent child abuse and neglect and improve the lives of children and families.

Nominees will have led efforts in the last year to prevent child abuse and neglect in our community through one or more of the following characteristics or activities:

- Demonstrating leadership and service in the prevention of child abuse and neglect.
- Raising awareness of child abuse and neglect throughout the community.
- Engaging parents directly in building protective factors for themselves and their families.
- Assisting in the promotion of positive parenting and the knowledge of child development.
- Leading efforts to promote the physical, mental, social and emotional well-being of all children and youth in the Kenosha community.
- Championing the importance of childhood by encouraging safe, stable and nurturing relationships and environments for all children.
- Helping families with concrete supports in times of need.

Please attach a narrative (2 or more paragraphs, limit 2 pages) describing how your nominee has led efforts to prevent child abuse and neglect in Kenosha County.
